REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

DOCUMENTS WITHDRAWN BEFORE REGISTRATION IS COMPLETE.

To—The Registering Officers in Mysore, Circular Memorandum No. of 1882—83, dated 30th May 1882.

In modification of this Office Circular No. 59—17, dated 23rd December 1872, regarding the refund of registration fees when documents are withdrawn by the presenter before registration, the Inspector General has the honor to state that in some cases it is reported that parties have demanded the withdrawal of a document when registration has already been proceeded with though not completed. The Registering Officer should in such cases endorse on the document in the usual manner the date of presentation, admission or denial of execution, and any other ascertained facts, adding the remark "Returned unregistered at the request of the presenter," with the date and the Registering Officer's signature.

The document should then be returned, but the fees should not be refunded.

H. HUDSON,
Insp. Genl. of Registration.
